

Bring Your Talent

For a fun social time, we will be having a talent show on Saturday night. Prepare a skit, sing a solo, or get a group together to sing. Sue Feltman and Barb Votrobeck are willing to accompany you if needed. Also, bring your instruments to help with music for worship.

Have Fun At Camp!

This is your chance to be a kid again! Explore the camp! Do the zip line! Take a group and participate in the Low Challenge Course. Swim or canoe! Test your archery skills. Whatever you do, enjoy this beautiful camp that is here for you!

Become a Camp Supporter

Our camp can continue to offer a sacred place for all to experience God with your help. Please consider a monthly gift to the camp. Help us keep this camp beautiful and available to all.

COME TO THE LAKESHORE

SUMMER SING 2010

AUGUST 27-29
PRESBYTERIAN
CAMP ON OKOBOJI

A Weekend to Sing, Share, and Celebrate Our Faith

If you love to sing, this is the camp for you! If you plan music for worship, this is the camp for you! This camp offers an experience for all who enjoy music and worship!

Participants will be exposed to a variety of music to enhance your congregation's worship. You will have the opportunity to hear and sing music in thought-centering, contemplative (Taize), contemporary, traditional, and gospel styles. This weekend is filled with rehearsals, worship, workshops, time to enjoy the lake, devotional times, and a chance to network with others who use music in planning and leading worship.

Our Guest Director

It is a pleasure to have Armona Redenius as our guest director for the weekend.

Armona is the director for the 140 vocalists that make up Sonshine Singers based in Fort Dodge. The mission statement for this choir is simple: "We are dedicated to providing, through contemporary sacred anthems, a "music ministry" revealing the power of God's love and grace so freely given to us all." Armona is excited to share her love of music. She has been the director of the Trinity United Methodist choir Trinity Singers and the Fort Dodge Civic Glee Club. Sonshine Singers have performed at the Iowa State Fair, the Gospel Fest at the Grotto in West Bend,, and each summer, they provide a music ministry for about 1500 people at the Oleson Park Bandshell in Fort Dodge.

Summer Sing Leadership

Sue Feltman

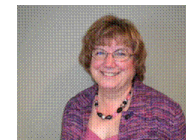

Currently the Director of Worship and Music at Cedar Heights Community Presbyterian Church in Cedar Falls, Sue is the organist, choir accompanist, director of the Worship Band, children's choir, and organizes various ensembles for worship. Sue taught High School Vocal Music at St. Edmond High School in Fort Dodge where she also served 17 years as organist, accompanist, choral director, handbell director, and director of the praise team for the contemporary service. Believing that music can reach people when words cannot, Sue has a passion for music in the church and hopes that each Summer Sing participant will have an "a-ha!" moment for music in their own churches.

Barb Votrobeck

Barb has taught music in the public schools in Jefferson, SD, Akron, IA, and Odebolt-Arthur CSD for a total of 36 years, retiring in 2007. She continues as a private voice, piano, and instrumental music teacher. An accomplished soloist and accompanist, Barb is an adjudicator for the Iowa High School Music Association. Barb has completed the Lay Academy in Fort Dodge. Barb is a member of Iowa Choral Directors Association, Nation Federated Music Clubs, Iowa Bandmasters Association, and Music Educators' National Conference. The Psalms urge us to "Sing to the Lord!" MUSIC is one of the eight learning styles. I have retained many Bible verses through choir anthems and camp songs. Arm yourselves with the many musical means through which we can stir up the Holy Spirit in worshippers.

Beth Ehlers

Since 1998, Beth has served as the Director for Christian Education at First Presbyterian Church in Mason City. She is the children's choir director, sings in the choir, and serves on the Worship and Music Committee. For seven years, she directed the Half-Mad and Summer Musical Camps at the Presbyterian Camp on Okoboji. Beth has completed the Lay Academy in Fort Dodge. Beth has a love of music. Her hope is that music in worship will lift the spirit and help each person feel closer to God.

The Rev. Paul Collier

Paul began his ministry with First Presbyterian Church in Mason City in September, 2007. He previously served as Associate Pastor at the Presbyterian Church in Mankato, Minnesota and as Director of Christian Education in Denton, Texas. Paul was ordained in 1999. He received his Master of Divinity from Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. "In music we most fully embody our faith, giving expression to our deepest sorrows and most exuberant joy in ways that go beyond words alone. We join the songs of Hannah and Mary, the stars that sang at creation, and the angels that sang at the birth of Christ--praising God with heart, mind, soul, and voice."
